CITY NEWS IN BRIEF

Alexandria Lodge of Elks will hold a social session following a business meeting of that organization tonight.

Mr. R. L. Payne left last night for New York on a business trip and will return tomorrow morning.

Miss John Daingerfield Brookes, of New York, is visiting her grandmother Mrs. William F. Brookes in Prince street.

Mr. Eugene W. Corbin, Wilmington, Del., is visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Corbin, 429 North St. Asaph street.

Mr. Frederick H. Schwab, of this city, underwent an operation on Saturday at the Episcopal Eye Ear and Throat Hospital, Washington.

B. J. Richards, who for the past thirteen months has been overseas, and who is now stationed at Camp Mills, N. Y., visited friends here yesterday.

Mr. and Mrs. Alexander Kaufmann, of 217 South Pitt street, announce the confirmation of their son Joseph which will take place at the synagogue Saturday February 15 at 10 a. m. They will be at home on February 16 from 7 until 10 p. m.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Bendheim, of 812 Prince street, announce the confimation of their son, Leroy to take place at the synagogue on Washington street Saturday morning, February 15, at 10 a. m. They will be at home February 16 from 7 until 10 p. m.

A free moving picture entitled "The End of the Road" will be shown at 7:30 o'clock tonight in the rooms of the Chamber of Commerce to the women of the city. An address will be delivered on the picture by Miss Towksbury, an official lecturer for the War Department. Only women will be admitted.

A dance will be given next Thursday evening in the War Camp Community service hall to raise funds for the entertainmen of overseas soldiers returning to Camp Humphreys. The affair will be chaperoned by Mrs. W. C. Wattles, Mrs. E. C. Dunn, Mrs. C .C. Leadbeater, Mrs. Wallace Lindsey, Miss Cora Cochran and Mrs. Carroll Pierce.

SHOOTING SATURDAY NIGHT

Considerable Excitement Caused Near Prince and Royal Streets

Considerable excitment was caused shortly before 10 o'clock Saturday night when a citizen shot at a man several times while near Prince and Royal streets.

It is stated that the citizen went after the man when he endeavored to accost the man's wife. The wife upon reaching her home informed her husband and he soon overtook the man and placed him in custody.

After going a short distance he turned him over to a military policeman. Just as he did so the man threw a bottle of whisky at the citizen and then broke away from the military policeman and it was at this juncture that the citizen fired.

MRS. MICHAEL DOWNEY DIES.

Mrs. Julia Dunn Downey, wife of Michael Downey, died at 2:40 o'clock this morning at her residence 418 Duke street. The deceased had been ill about two weeks.

Mrs. Downey was a well known resident and enjoyed a wide circle of friends who will regret to hear of her death. Besides her husband she is survived by a daughter and two sons, Miss Virginia Downey, Leo T. and Julian O'K Downey. Mrs. Downey was a daughter of the late Mrs. Martin Lawler. The funeral arrangements have not been completed.

LOUISE LUNSFORD BURIED

The funeral of little Louise Lunsford, who was struck and killed by an automobile Friday afternoon at Del Ray, Alexandria county, took place yesterday afternoon from the Methodist Church, Del Ray. Services were conducted by Rev. Dr. E. V. Regester, pastor of the M. E. Church South, this city. The funeral was largely attanded, among those present being many of her school companions.

PLEA FOR ARMENIANS

Pledges and Cash Amounting to $712 Collected Yesterday Following Address by Miss McCormick at Richmond Theatre.

After hearing an urgent appeal in behalf of the war sufferers of Armenia and Syria delivered by Miss K. R. McCormick, of the National Armenian Relief Committee, at a mass meeting held yesterday afternoon in the Richmond Theater, the sum of $712 was collected in pledges and cash for the fund.

Alexandria's proportion of the fund is $4,000. Blanks for those desiring to contribute to the cause may be obtained at the rooms of the Chamber of Commerce or at any of the banks of the city.

Unless the foregoing amount is collected during the week it will be necessary to put on a campaign for this cause. It is believed, however, that this will be unnecessary and that the citizens will come forward and help make up the amount.

Miss McCormick delivered an able address on the work and urged all to contribute as generously as possible from a humanitarian point of view if from nothing else.

An old Belgium soldier seeing the Red Cross at work declared "America is the savior of the world," and we must live up to this reputation and help these poor starving people she said.

The speaker told of the atrocities committed on these people by the unspeakable Turks. The Armenians look to us because we are a Christian nation she said.

The meeting was presided over by Robert L. Payne, president of the Chamber of Commerce, and was opened with prayer by Rev. A. E. Speilman, pastor of Trinity M. E. Church, and closed with benediction by Rev. Dr. W. J. Morton, rector of Christ Episcopal Church.

SMALL FIRES IN CITY

Two alarms of fire Saturday afternoon brought out the fire department. The first was caused by the explosion of an oil stove at a house on the east side of Fairfax street between Wolfe and Wilkes streets, and the second, before 7 o'clock, was for a chimney fire at Prince and Royal streets.

A slight fire near Wilkes and Henry street brought out the department shortly before 6 o'clock yesterday evening.

FLYERS FALL TO DEATH

Hydroplane in Fatal Nose Dive at Training Station—Bodies Recovered.

Pensacola, Fla., Feb. 10.—The deaths of three naval flyers in a hydroplane accident was announced here Saturday at the naval training station. Ensigns Duane Rutledge, Robins, La.; David Mingle, Tyrone, Pa., and Ralph McCormick, East Boston, Mass., were killed last night when their machine fell about 500 feet into the bay and was demolished. The bodies were found floating in the wreckage.

The hydroplane H-S 1 was seen to go into a nose dive and spectators thought it part of a maneuver. When it struck the water and failed to rise again mechanics went to the aid of the flyers, thinking the engine had stopped. It was found to have been wrecked, however, apparently having struck the water with terrific force.

A GREAT SHOW

The Grand theatre is fortunate in being able to present the versatile Triangle star, William Desmond in "Deuce Duncan" tomorrow night.

"Deuce Duncan" offers Mr. Desmond a role of unusual interest. He portrays the character of a dare-devil cowpuncher who fears neither God, man nor devil. The little bar-maid of the "Half Acre of Hell" saloon wins his heart and he turns his guns to good purposes.

A unique element in this picture is that in which the cowpunchers of the UR ranch grease their cattle in order to locate rustlers. Desmond wades through some terrific battles in this thriller.

In the cast supporting him are Luelle Maxim, Ed Brady, George Field William Ellingford and Joe Singleton.

SUSPECT IS FREED

Miss Garrett Exonerates Man Taken In Custody at Orange, Va., After Seeing Prisoner at Fairfax Courthouse Yesterday.

Miss Julia May Garrett, who Sunday last was attacked by a soldier and a civilian near Seminary Station, Fairfax County, yesterday, visited the jail at Fairfax Courthouse and viewed another suspect arrested at Orange, Va., and brought here by Sheriff J. R. Allison.

Miss Garrett was unable to identify him as one of the men who attacked her and later he was taken to Burke Station, Fairfax County, for the operator at the railroad tower to look him over. He also was unable to identify the suspect who was released from custody.

Sheriff Allison today visited Camp Humphreys, Va., in his search for the assailant of Miss Garrett.

Miss Garrett was attacked by two men Sunday afternoon February 2, near Seminary Station after detraining from a southbound train. The first to attack her was a soldier and almost immediately afterward she was attacked by a civilian, thought to be a tramp. All efforts to apprehend the assailants of the young woman thus far have proved futile.

DEATH OF MISS SARA L. LEE

Miss Sara Ludwell Lee, a former resident of this city, died yesterday at 3043 P street, northwest, Washington. The deceased was a daughter of the late Cassius Lee, and for many years resided here. For the past few years she has made her home in Washington.

Her funeral will take place at 9 o'clock tomorrow morning from St. Matthew's Catholic Church, Washington, and burial will be made in Christ Church cemetery this city.

OFFICERS TO GET SWORDS

Commissioned and Non Commissioned Officers of A. H. S. Corps Will be Announced Tomorrow.

The names of those cadets selected to be the officers and noncommissioned officers of the Alexandria High school cadet corps, will be announced at formation for drill tomorrow, Tuesday, February 11, at 2:35 p. m., and the officers will be presented with swords at that time. The selections are based on the results of written competitive examinations on the tactics and also of practical tests of ability. Conduct and executive efficiency were given consideration and featured largely in the determination.

The cadets now number about forty, and it is hoped that more names will soon appear upon the muster roll. As yet the corps is not completely or uniformaly uniformed, but with the coming of spring all will don the khaki which is less expensive and more durable than the hitherto used cadet gray. Drills are held at 2.35 p. m. on the high school grounds Tuesday, Thursday, and Friday of each week.

RICHMOND—Wm. S. Hart.

"Big Bill" Hart was never more convincing, never more active or likable than as the Sheriff in his new photoplay, "Breeds of Men." Which will be seen tonight at the Richmond. In the role of a man who is deceived and who discovers the fact in time to save himself from disgrace and his friends from ruin, his portrayal stands out with a vividness that is all-compelling. The story is by J. G. Hawks and Mr. Hart directed it himself. The production was staged under the supervision of Thos. H. Ince.

MAN AND WIFE FOUND DEAD

Jersey City, N. J., Feb. 10.—The dead body of Mrs. Alice Hopkins, aged 35, was found in her home here Saturday night, and her husband, John B. Hopkins, a four minute speaker and war worker, was found sitting in a chair nearby in an unconscious condition. He died three hours later at the city hospital.

INVITED TO MEET HERE

State Convention of Travelers Protective Association Expected to Select This City For Its Meeting May 2 and 3.

Post F, Travelers' Protective Association, at a meeting Saturday night in the rooms of the Chamber of Commerce extended an invitation to the state organization to hold its annual meeting in Alexandria May 2 and 3. The invitation will be extended to the state organization through Col. Julian Y. Williams this city, a member of the state board. It is expected the invitation will be accepted.

Just as soon as word is received by the local post that the invitation has been accepted committees will be appointed by the local post to prepare a plan of entertainment for the guests.

Several years ago the State Convention of this organization held a meeting in the opera house and on that occassion Alexandria lived up to its reputation for hospitality. It was one of the most successful conventions ever held in that organization.

FREE LECTURE

Will be Given Thursday Night at Lyceum on Wireless by Government Expert.

A free lecture and talk will be given Thursday night at 7:30 o'clock at the Young Men's Lyceum on Duke street by an expert government licensed wireless operator, who is one of the instructors in the Service Radio School, 902 Pennsylvania avenue, Washington, as will be seen by an advertisement elsewhere in the Gazette.

This school wants young men between sixteen and forty-five years of age to prepare for splendid openings in the wireless field. Radio inspectors receive from $1,200 to $3,500 a year and radio aids receive $7.04 a day. Many other lucrative positions are open.

This Radio Service School is the largest in the world.

In the circuit court in vacation today the will of Mrs. Ann Penn was admitted to probate. The instrument is dated April 15, 1918. Testatrix leaves house 522 South Patrick street, to her daughter, Mrs. Mary E. Fones. The residue of her estate she bequeaths to her sons to be equally divided as follows: George Jessie, Edward and John Penn. She names George Penn as executor and he qualified as such.

PAYS $7,000 FOR HANDSHAKES; NOW UNDER OBSERVATON

New York, Feb. 10. —After having given away ten dollar notes to an amount estimated at $7,000, James Kendall, thirty-four years old, believed to be a retired Texas business man is in the psychopathic ward at Bellevue Hospital today. He is awaiting observation as to his sanity.

Kendall was arrested when he proclaimed that he had a ten dollar bill for every man in uniform who would shake hands with him.

CHANGE NAME OF CLASS

Wesley Bible Class of M. E. Church South Adopts Name of Henry Knox Field Memorial Bible Class—Officers Are Chosen for Year.

At the conclusion of the regular Sunday morning session of the Wesley Bible Class, yesterday the class resolved itself in busines session for the purpose of electing officers for the year 1919, as well as to dispose of any other matters of business coming before it for action.

The election resulted as follows:

President, Harry W. Wade.

Vice president, F. Kenneth Baggett.

Secretary-treasurer, Walter S. Nicklin,

Assistant secretary, Clyde B. Lanham,

Teacher Harry B. Caton,

Assistant teacher, Rev. E. O. Watson

Choirister, Clarence W. Dettor.

Pianist, George H Taylor.

The following resolution was offered and unanimously carried.

Resolved that commencing with the new conference year 1919-20, in token of love and esteem in which our late teacher and brother Henry Knox Field was held in the hearts of the members of this class, that the class be known and haled as the Henry Knox Field Memorial Bible Class of the Methodist Episcopal Church South Alexandria, Va.

At the close of the session the officers met in council and outlined plans to stimulate class interest and also laid plans for some form of entertainment, to be given in the near future.

NEW TERMS TO GERMANY

Allied Premiers to Call Sharp Halt on Arrogance and to Insist on Armistice Demands.

Paris, Feb. 10.—The Allied Premiers probably will fix new terms to be imposed upon Germany, whose tactics of obstruction and recrimination are said to have reached a climax in a threat made at Weimar by Chancellor Ebert that Germany would break off negotiations with the Allies.

The feeling in peace conference circles is that the Germans are more and more forgetting their position and it is expected that the Supreme War Council will take measures to bring them to a sense of the realities.

Marshall Foch will go to Treves February 17 to fix the conditions for a third renewal of the armistice and the discussion of the conditions to be imposed probably will take up most of the time of the Eupreme War Council session today.

It is understood that the council will fix a brief time within which the Germans must carry out the conditions they have only fulfilled in part. In this respect it is noted that none of the German merchant ships which were to have been sent to certain Allied ports have yet been handed over.

French opinion considers that the occupation of Essen is of first necessity if the Allies are to control Germany's principal war factories. Public opinion in France also is asking if the Supreme War Council is going to allow Field Marshall von Hindenburg to establish himself in Bromberg and prepare a campaign against Poland, which can only be supplied through Danzig.

The Supreme War Council also will fix the size of the contingents of France, Great Britain the United States and Allied nations in the armies of occupation, both in Europe and Asia.

TO ENFORCE LAWS

Provision for enforcement of the war-time prohibition law, effective July 1, is embodied in a bill introduced in the Senate by Senator Sheppard of Texas and referred to the Senate judiciary committee. The bill provides an appropriation of $1,500,000 for enforcement which would be in charge of a special deputy of the internal revenue bureau. A similar bill was introduced in the House recently.

DOING SPLENDID WORK

Appeal by Anti-Tuberculosis Society For Members—Has Been in Existence Ten Years—All Urged to Join —Dues Only One Dollar a Year.

All Alexandria has profited and is profiting by the work of the Anti-Tuberculosis Society, and yet it is believed that there are many Alexandrians especially among the recent arrivals, who know nothing of its existence.

Just ten years ago the Alexandria branch of the society was organized. It's original design was to help by propaganda and by active service in the crusade against tuberculosis. It has been, and continues to be, responsible for sending at various times, tubercular patients from Alexandria to the State Tuberculosis Sanitarium and paying their expenses while there. Soon, however, this sphere of usefulness was broadened to include work amongst all the sick and suffering of Alexandria.

In 1911, through the generosity of the Hon. C. C. Carlin, and with the co-operation of the Alexandria Hospital, the society was able to engage a district nurse. Since then, the growth of the city has made a second nurse necessary. Since last July, Alexandria has had the benefit of the service of two district nurses, engaged and maintained by the Anti-Tuberculosis Society, which has become, therefore, also a visiting and instructive nurses' association.

All through the heat of last summer and during the prevelance of typhoid these nurses did most faithful work among the many needing their care and attention. When October brought the most terrible epidemic that has ever ravaged the community, the Influenza committee was unable to obtain outside nurses and so the bulk of the house to house nursing fell on these two.

During the month of October they made over one thousand nursing visits They worked day and night, and many households have had cause to bless the names of Miss Shotts and Miss Bristow, both amongst the indigent poor and amongst others, who would gladly have paid for outside help, but were unable to find it at any price.

Several members of the Anti-Tuberculosis Society also took active positions on the Influenza Committee and many of the needed supplies were furnished through their efforts and distributed by the district nurses.

Since the waning of the epidemic many patients suffering from the after effects of influenza have been visited and instructions in sanitation and preventive health measures given by these nurses. It is blieved that in a number of these cases, the danger of the development of tubercolosis, or other serious complication, has been thus prevented.

The funds of the society are raised by membership dues, one dollar per year, assisted by the proceeds of an occasional entertainment and the subscriptions of a few public, spirited Alexandrians. The sum of fifty cents a visit is also paid by the Metropolitan Life Insurance company for each nursing visit made to a patient who holds a policy in that company. This amount was augmented during the nine years preceeding 1918, by the sum of $250 yearly, allowed to the society by the City Council, for its care of the poor of the city. The society has no office expenses, every cent contributed goes directly into the maintenance of a patient at Catawba, the payment of the salaries of the district nurses, and the purchase of medical and surgical supplies used by them.

This work, which certainly vitally concerns everyone in the community, has been so far, carried on by a comparative few. While the individual subscriptions have been generous, they have not been many in number. The membership is small and the society is anxious to enlarge it to include every Alexandrian who has the health and public welfare of his city at heart. Supplies, money, and above all, an automobile for the use of the nurses in making their rounds are all urgently needed if this most important public work is to be adequately and efficiently carried on.

There has been a large increase in the population of Alexandria and several large corporations have established themselves amongst us. While this has brought added prosperity to the city, it has brought also added civic responsibility, which it is hoped and believes will be willingly shared by both elements, the old and the new.

Will not everyone who reads this appeal at least give the encouragment to the society of sending his or her name, with accompanying dollar, to be placed on the membership rolls? The secretary, Mrs. Taylor Burke, and the treasurer, Miss Fannie S. Herbert will be glad to receive all communications and answer any questions relative to the society.

Among the large contributions received were the following: Sunday School of the M. E. Church South, $100; St. Paul's Sunday School, $100; Second Presbyterian Church Sunday School, $100; First Baptist Church Sunday School, $100; R. S. Jones, $100; Judge J. K. M. Norton, $100; Miss McCormick, $100; Trinity M. E. Church Sunday School, $25; Grace P. E. Church Sunday School, $25.

TRAIN JUMPS FROM TRESTLE.

Chick Springs, S. C., Scene of Unique Accident Which May Cost Several Lives

Greenville, S. C., Feb. 10.—Four persons are dead and sixteen injured, several probably fatally, as the result of the derailment of a car on the Piedmont and Northern Railway at Chick Springs, about ten miles from this city, at 11 o'clock Saturday morning.

It jumped the track on a high trestle, and pitched ninety feet into a ravine, completely demolishing the car and instantly killed two passengers. Two of the injured have since died at the base hospital at Camp Sevier, to which the injured were taken.

MINES CLOSED

A strike called by Industrial Workers of the World resulted in the closing Saturday of the mines in the Butte field. Pickets, including a few women and several men in soldiers' uniforms turned back from the mines those who sought to enter. There were several shots fired on Anaconda hill, and several arrests were made. No one was injured.

THE CRY FROM ARMENIA

As had been anticipated, there was a large turnout of Alexandrians at the mass meeting yesterday afternoon in the Richmond Theater when an address was delivered by Miss McCormick in the interest of the campaign to raise funds for the relief of the Syrian and Armenian races.

The state of Virginia is asked to raise $300,000 of which Alexandria's part is $4,000.

The ministers of this city yesterday morning entered heart and soul in this appeal. They placed the obligation upon the civilized world to respond to the appeal of Armenia and Syria, bringing many pertinent passages of scripture to show that these members of the human race who are on the verge of starving from no fault of their own should be afforded immediate relief from a country long blessed in basket and in store.

For centuries the Turkish Empire has been a blot upon the civilized world. Regarded as the "sick man of Europe," this house of cards has been kept intact by the jealousy of larger nations, in order to keep Russia out of Constantinople. Within the memory of many living the Muscovites have gotten close enough to this most strategic city in the world to hear the church bells, but England, the destinies of which country were then being directed by W. E. Gladstone, virtually ordered the would-be conquerers away.

Times have changed since Gladstone was gathered to the fathers. A world-war is just closing, which has left the Russian bear powerless and disgraced, the country having rendered itself useless from a military standpoint at a time when the allies of Muscovy were in most need of its services. The cruel Hun, however, was crushed while Russia, in whose interests England and France drew the sword, looked on.

Turkey, an ally of Germany, went down with that country, and Constantinople has forever passed out of the hands of the Moslems, but not into those of Russia, as had been the dream of Czars for centuries. Armenia, Syria and Palestine have also been wrested from the Turk, and it is the distresesd inhabitants of the first named country, homeless and impoverished, who have sent their "S O S" calls across the sea.

Cries have for many years been coming from Armenia, believed to have been the cradle of the human race. In the twentieth century, far away in the new world, blessed with the greatest abundance, we should not turn a deaf ear to the appeals of the people who have been long-sufferers under the Turkish yoke.

AN OPPORTUNE TIME

Strikes grow more prevalent at the very time when unemployment increases; a combination unusual in the movement of economic life. On one hand, we have thousands of workers suspending production, or by their uncertain attitude discouraging it, on the other, thousands of returning soldiers and other unplaced workers hunting employment. The strength of union organization, the specialized skill of certain bodies of workers act as a dyke to keep out the press of situation seekers, even while the normal holders of the situations leave them empty. This country, we believe, has not before experienced so serious a threat of walkout and lack of work in combination.

What result may we expect of the abnormal concurrence? As a strike in any one occupation diminishes activity in allied industries, a prevalence of strikes would mean a decrease in the number which the industries indirectly affected employed. When strikes are few this consequence does not count heavily, but let strikes attain a prevalence that will make their economic influence sufficiently felt and each strike may quite possibly put out of employment one or more non-strikers in an allied trade. The tendency of strikes is thus to multiply unemployment.

Unemployment itself likewise tends in its earlier effects to increase unemployment. A group of producers out of work amounts usually to a group out of funds, unable to maintain its full part in the function of consumption. The withdrawal of a fraction of the army of consumers destroys a part of the community's total demand for commodities and thus discourages the producers of goods, particularly in certain lines, hardest and soonest hit.

So here two depressants coincide to slow down the industries and to put other workers out of work, in addition to those already displaced. The coincidence of unfavorable influences may cause acute and aggravated hardship unless the peril be clearly forseeen and carefully provided against.

THE PRESIDENT'S CRITICS

When the fathers assembled to frame the Constitution of the American republic, Madison, Randolph and Hamilton each carried with him to the gathering a set of ideas as to what should constitute the fundamentals of that historic document. Not one of them announced beforehand what his views were; it was long after the instrument was drawn up that the details of their respective propositions were known. It is to be assumed that the ideas of each matured considerably during the process of discussion. While, strictly speaking, it can be said that the original program of none of them was accepted, the final product was of such strength as to stand the test of succeeding generations.

In this connection the Richmond Times-Dispatch says "Republicans of the present day, unmindful of these facts, cry down upon the President of the United States for having failed, from the very outset of his mission to Europe, to lay before the world in detail his plans for a league of nations. Criticizing him for not producing a cut-and-dried plan, which they might dissect and "analyze," they would have denied him the purpose which he had from the first, that of taking counsel with the statesmen of the other powers as to the most effective plan to be adopted. Yet in getting these statesmen to work with him in the evolution of this great new project in international relationship, President Wilson achieved an agreement that is backed by the united pledge of the five great powers.

"Already, too, these same critics, so fertile of imagination in erecting pictures of dangers to come from this league of nations, are chagrined to find the ground taken from under them as the framework of the actual league begins to appear. After having railed against the league as a Frankenstein of most menacing proportions, they find that there is no justification whatever for their assertion beforehand that it would involve a sacrifice of sovereignty. In their desperate search for an issue with which to approach the presidential campaign of 1920, these Republican leaders—many of them tentative candidates for the presidential nomination of their party—have refused to withhold their criticisms until they could review the actual results of the President's efforts abroad, and have insisted upon distorting the purposes of his mission in order that they might parade their antagonism. Thus far the campaign material they have thus developed has been exceedingly poor."

AN INTERESTING BOOK

"It is Great War and Her National Aspirations" is the title of an exceedingly interesting volume we have received. It is a production of Mario Alberti, General Carlo Corsi, Amando Hodnig, Tomaso Sillani, Attilio Tamaro and Ettore Tolomei. The introduction was written by H. Nelson Hay. The book contains twenty illustrations and four maps, and is edited by Alfieri & Lacroix, Milan.

It is one of the most absorbing publications which has followed virtual close of the world war, as it gives the history of the Caesars during the past century, or since the peace of Vienna, when certain parts of Italy were ceded to Austria, which the writer show have been misgoverned, and the greatest cruelty exercised by the Hapsburgs.

FIERCE BATTLE IN KIEL

Many Killed as Machine Guns Rake Ranks of Strikers

Amsterdam, Feb. 10.—Fierce street fighting is taking place in Kiel where 2,000 Spartacan strikers attempted to storm the barracks. Many have been killed and wounded. A general strike has been called.

Government troops chased the Spartacans into their homes, killing many outright, while machine guns emplaced in windows swept the streets, taking a fearful toll of life.

2,000,000 TO QUIT WORK

Building Trades Workers Throughout Country to Aid Carpenters

New York, Feb. 10.—More than 2,000,000 men will be on strike today in various branches of the building trade activities, it was unofficially estimated last night. A strike order for a walkout in sympathy with the striking carpenters employed by the building trades employers' association will affect all union bricklayers and hoisting engineers throughout the United States employed on contract work by the association.

"It is impossible to say just how many workers will walk out tomorrow," said William L. Hutcheson, president of the United Brotherhood of Carpenters and Joiners. "The carpenters are demanding a $1-a-day wage increase and the bricklayers and hoisting engineers have voted to strike in sympathy. More than a score of large cities will be affected, including New York, Chicago, Boston, Washington, Buffalo, Cleveland, Detroit, New Orleans, New Haven, Columbus, Mobile and Terre Haute."

SUSPECTED MURDERERS

Wan and Van Arrested When "Alibis" Prove Absurd on Face

Grilled secretly for nearly a week their every alibi battered to pieces, and their numerous stories conflicting so that they proved their own transparency, Ziaung Sun Wan, and his brother, T. I. Van, were locked up yesterday in the Tenth precinct station, charged with the murders of Dr. Theodore T. Wong, director of the Chinese Educational Mission and his two assistants, C. H. Hsie, and B. S. Wu, at the home of the mission, 2023 Kalorama road, on the night of January 28.

Wan and Van will be taken before the coroner's jury, today and it is believed they will be held responsible for the deaths of the noted educator and his two secretaries, recommending that they be held for the action of the grand jury, which in turn, through the processes of the District legal procedure, will, it is expected, present indictments of first degree murder.

DRUNKEN COW RUNS AMUCK.

Revenue Officer to the Rescue, Captures Bovine and Booze Outfit.

Columbus, Ga., Feb. 10.—An intoxicated cow, running away from a 150 gallon still was captured by Deputy Revenue Collector English, of Atlanta, and S. J. Causey, of this city, Saturday afternoon.

Investigation showed that the cow had found the top off and the still full of sour mash. Having no conscientious scruples about violating the bone dry law, she had the time of her life. Her head went in the still opening easy enough, but would not come out.

The remainder of the still outfit was captured by the officers near where the cow was found, but the owners had disappeared.

DARING BANDITS

Trio Blackjack Machinist and Three Others Hold Up Saloon

New York, Feb. 10.—New York's recent wave of crime was increased early yesterday when seven hold-ups were reported to the police. The most daring occurred in a subway station where Samuel Eisenstein, a machinist, was blackjacked and robbed. He told the police the bandits who numbered 3, had ripped out his right trousers pocket which had contained $66 in bills. The bandits escaped.

Another desperate trio raided a saloon, backing the customers to the wall with revolvers and then emptying the cash register of $70. The men entered a waiting automobile and escaped.

Two men held up Frank De Senorie, a Philadelphia waiter, in Brooklyn and relieved him of $25. A short distance away from the scene of this hold-up two men attempted to steal an automobile. The chauffeur made one of the robbers prisoner and drove him to a police station. This is the only arrest recorded in the series of robberies.

HUN WAR BLUFF

German Newspapers Violently Oppose Yielding Alsace Lorraine.

Weimar, Germany, Fe. 10.—Germany will resist if the peace terms are too hard.

—In Germany the newspapers are violently spreading propaganda that Alsace-Lorraine is German and must remain German.

The Peace Conference's decision on the German colonies has raised a storm of protest in Germany and even in Weimar protest lists are covered with hundreds of signatures.

Unless the allies come to an understanding with the Bolshevists, its is quite feasible that Germany may do so, either openly so as to take advantage of the huge and welltrained Bolshevist army or by drifting into Bolshevism because of the lack of food stuffs and raw materials.

Dr. Bernhard Dernburg in an interview said: "We accepted President Wilson's terms because we thought them impartial, but the decision of the Peace Conference was not impartial. Are not all the colonies both French and British, to be internationalized? Our rights to our colonies have never been disputed and we shall stand by our rights."

Even the women members of the assembly accept Chancellor Ebert's threat of a refusal to make peace."

NEWS OF THE DAY.

Nine persons were drowned late Saturday when a small boat capsized in a bend on the Warrior River, two miles from Gorgas, Ala.

The negotiations between Polish and German emissaries looking toward a cessation of hostilities in German Polands have resulted in an armistice. The Polcs are said to be concentrating special storming troops for use in Silesia.

The Bolshevik government has decided that all males in Russia, irrespective of nationality, must serve in the red army.

Dr. Edward David, for many years one of the leaders of the German Social Democratic party, on Saturday was almost unanimously elected president of the German National Assembly at Weimar.

American drillers, working for the government, have struck oil in a well near Birmington, Derbyshire. No announcement is made as to the extent of the flow. Six wells are being put down in Derbyshire, testing what is believed to be an extensive ail field.

Navy aviation experts are planning a flight across the Atlantic. Commander John H. Towers has been ordered to take charge of "the development of plans and assembly of material and personned for the proposed transatlantic flight."

American ships will soon steam up the Rhine, using Rotterdam as a base. It is announced that the transport of Americans to their homes is progressing as rapidly as possible and that during February the number of men to be taken to America would be considerably augmented.

DUESSELDORF ON STRIKE

Berlin, Feb. 8.—The whole city of Duesseldorf has "walked out" Officials, clerks and other employees in the service of railways, posts, telegraph, telephone and service lines; bankers, lawyers, physicians, schoolteachers and other persons engaged in professions have quit work.

This is 1919. Resolve to advertise your mrchandise in The Gazette consistently throughout the year.

TERMS TO GERMANY

Paris, Feb 10—The Supreme War Council is reported to have reached a decision at Saturday's meeting that it was necessary to impose more severe conditions upon Germany for the renewal of the armistice, because of Germany's attitude toward the fulfill ment of her obligations. Decisions also are said to have been reached for the control of German demobilization and of the production of plants former ly engaged in producing war material.

It is expected that the means for securing the execution of the conditions laid down will be reached at tomorrow's session of the council.

SUFFRAGISTS HELD

Attempt to Burn Wilson in Effigy is Frustrated. Party Decries Act.

Although the Anthony amendment, granting the women of the country nation-wide suffrage was within less than twenty-four hours time of a reintroduction into the Senate, seventy-five militant suffragists marched to the front of the White House yesterday afternoon and attempted to burn an effigy of the man who twice has appealed personally to Congress to pass the amendment.

The suffragists were frustrated in their attempts by police, who arrested thirty-seven of their number and bundled them off to the First and Third precincts, where charges of violating the park regulations were placed against them.

A crowd of 2,000 persons gathered due to the fact that an attempt to burn an effigy of President Wilson had been advertised.

AUCTION SALES
